RE: Non-HVLP Spray Guns

Dear Mr. Hofert,

Air Management Services has reviewed your July 26, 2011 request for written approval to allow the use of the following non-HVLP spray guns under Air Management Regulation V, Section XIV(G)(1)(c):

- TEKNA Pro spray gun with TE10 air cap at 35 PSIG or less
- TEKNA ProLite spray gun with TE10 air cap at 35 PSIG or less
- TEKNA Pro spray gun with TE20 air cap at 26 PSIG or less
- TEKNA ProLite spray gun with TE20 air cap at 26 PSIG or less

Based on the information provided, AMS approves their use under Air Management Regulation V, Section XIV(G)(1)(c) on the condition that the following items are met:

- The air pressure supplied to each spray gun is equal to or less than the levels stated above.
- The spray guns are also approved by the Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Protection (PADEP) under 25 PA Code Section 129.75(e)(10) and comply with any approval conditions required by PADEP.

If you have any questions, please call me at (215) 685-9426.

Sincerely,

Edward Wiener
Environmental Engineer
